JUROR: Sande Webster

As founder of Sande Webster Gallery, she garnered worldwide respect as a pioneer, championing artists for the quality of their work regardless of their race. For over 42 years she has been committed to ground-breaking exhibits, often including a diversity of artists and mediums previously not shown in the "fine art" world. Their works, including painting, drawing, sculpture, lithographs, woodcuts, glass, fiber arts, ceramics, iris prints and photography, are now in major museum, corporate and private collections. The gallery's roster have shown all over the USA, as well as internationally from Denmark to Brazil, demonstrating originality of concept and the finest standards of workmanship.

Artists Equity works to advance and serve the profession of the Visual Fine Artist in the tri-state region.
